

"It's Here"

lyrics by Bryan Hancock light all up like a roman candle hearts the paintbrush and the canvas make it all happen from where ya standing ain't no second string nope no stand in's every hand up cuz we got the answer shout it to the sky like a walking pamphlet whole city tapping in for the cause enthralled showing out defying laws of gravity in the name of humanity already won GO roll with ya family see ya dreams lucid in 3D Be who wanna be faith of a mustard seed germinate culminating purpose I shall proceed be a walking testimony our stories unfold so bold for the glory (Yeah!) it's all here telling our stories taking the lead etch in stone yeah just look for me

2nd verse

Hold this torch just to protect this candle I've seen squads camps and cliques all dismantle let our lights shine as we take it by force we got our right mind so we aim our voice kill it on set cause' it all just cause and effect rub this rash watch it more than infect keep ya accolades riches an awards in here we go to war with a pen mighty sword in here bust like a cannon flow move just like a phantom the flow so fast the conversation just so random like who's that on that mic? a true bonafide emcee he doing what he like? heard he's so live..could He ever style bite? Is he live for real or just another sound byte? Nah Never!
so smooth stronger than ever, do it right now Yeah..it's now or never!!!!!!
